PITCHER FRY IS RELEASED

Large Crowd Will Witness the Opening Game and All Will

Every one in Danville is a rooter.

The Richmond team got to Danville just before 8 o'clock, having traveled over the Southern Railroad. Tired and sleepy, the Lawmakers went immediately to the dining room of their hotel, and, after taking a good meal, went to bed. If they do not take the game to-morrow, it will not be because they are not in shape.

Manager Benny, the man who was hypnotized by Mr. Moore in Richmond last year, met the Richmonder at the depot and escorted them to the hotel. He says that he will win to-morrow.

Eckstone, the Hooligan of the Lawmakers, will do the twirling, and Hinton will be behind the bat. Rickards will be in the box for Benny's aggregation.

Pitcher Fry Released.

Pitcher Fry Released.

Just before leaving Richmond Manager Shaffer released Pitcher Fry, who pitched the losing game in Lynchburg last Wednesday. With the release of this player there is only fourteen men left, and these can be carried throughout the season. No more releases are expected.

The players here are Long, Still, Laval and Eckstone, pitchers; Catchers Hinton and Cowan; infield, Hicks, Shaffer, Hamilton, Cuddy and Sharp. The outfield will be Anthony, Rose and Titman.

The indications are that there will be a very large crowd at the game tomorrow.

RUSSIAN SHIP AND ENTIRE CREW FOUND ENCASED IN ICE

Blockade Runner Which Disappeared Last Autumn Diseovered Near Amur River With All on Board Dead.

VLADIVOSTOK, May 6.—The Russian blockade runner Soedsbaya, which disappeared last autumn awaiting orders in regard to the landing of a cargo of arms here, has been discovered at Nikoleyevsk, near the Amur River. The ship was found encased in a shining armor of ice and with the members of her crew in various positions frozen stiff after lying for months in the Arctic cold.

It is supposed that the captain of the ship lost his bearings while waiting for orders and hiding from the Japanese, mann-o-war, and was caught in the ice. There is every evidence that herculean efforts were made to get the ship away. The postures of the dead seamen tell graphically of the struggle with a terribile death. Some of the bodies were found on the ice about the bows of the ship, as if they had been sent ahead with explosives to blast a channel, All the eatables were consumed, and hope that he would be able to extricate himself and his vessel from its position of paril, and that he therefore commanded his crew to stick by the ship At the last, as the evidence would indi-

At the last, as the evidence would indicate, the order was given for every member of the crew to save himself as best he might. It is not known, however, whether any one escaped.

Everything aboard the vessel, above or below decks, was sheathed in ice. The arms which were intact, but it is thought are ruined from rust. The vessel was placed under waiting orders pending the result of the pence conference at Portsmouth, and the sailors who perished never knew that the war had ended.

LACROSSE A NOVELTY HERE

This Interesting Game Will Be Played Here To-morrow Afternoon,

While the Lawmakers are away in the City by the Dan, the local game should occupy no little interest.

The Lawmakers will return next Thursday, ready to wield the willow against the men from Norfolk. On account of the stinding of these two teams and the popular opinion everywhere evidenced that Norfolk has one of the strongest, in not the strongest, nine in the field, the game is exciting a wide, anticipative interest. Lacrosse To-morrow.

The University of Virginia La Crosse team, which plays the team from Randolph-Macon in Richmond to-morrow, will bring down the following players from Charlottesville: Bryan, Davis, Yancey, Bartlett, Micou, Paddock, Johnston and Sauthe. Saville.

Lehigh, with its crack team, beat Virginia hist week by the score of 10 to 1. This speaks well for the latter, as Lehigh defeated Cornell by the score of 9 to 0, showing that it is one of the best. The University of Virginia has been playing La Crosse only three years. Next year it is expected that the General Athletic Association will award "V's" to the players.

This is the first season for Randolph-Macon in La Crosse, but the boys promise to make it interesting for Virginia. La Crosse is one of the oldest games in the world, and thoroughly American t was a game that the Indians played when the settlers first reached America,

Little Hed-Headed Funston.

Little Hed-Headed Funston.

When diminutive, stud-nosed Colone Funston brought the Twentieth Kansas Regiment to the Presidio, on its way to the Philippines, some years ago, the San Pranc-ea people, paked good-natured fun at the "country lakes" and their colonel. Last week these same people were very glad the doughty Funston was on the ground. The red-headed Kansas midget made good with his Twentieth Kansas in the East and won a brigadier generalship, Last week little Funston faced the most trying situation of his life. Polse, keenness and vigor were needed. When Funston ordered the soldiers to shoot looters on sight and to compel file and unwilling men to work at the point of the bayonet, he took a great risk would the War Department support him? He rose to be emergency, shut down the lid of the field that was beginning to raise and sat ufit. History can never rob the red-head, little brigadier of the supreme hour when he saved San Francisco from itself,—From the Memphis News-Scimitar.

championship series to be played here, the contest will be peculiarly interesting. Both the Spiders and Yellow-Jackets have remarkably strong teams, and to-day's game must necessarily be a battle royal from start to finish. Throckmorton, Richmond's fast twirler, will be in the box for the home team, and as he has proven himself to be a steady pitcher, with good judgment and headwork, it is likely that he will hold the visitors to but a few hits. Gardner, the other pitcher, will probably occupy a position in left field. While the Lawmakers are away in the City by the Dan, the local game should
